

NAAC Program Membership Application

The National Association for Alternative Certification (NAAC) offers three options for program membership. The $500 program membership allows an institution to designate up to 10 representatives as members of NAAC. The $400 associate program membership allows partnering non-profits to designate up to 10 representatives as members of NAAC. The $300 organizational program membership allows an institution to designate up to 5 representatives as members of NAAC. Provide complete program contact information below, followed by the name, title and email address of each designated member. Also include alternate mailing addresses if appropriate (you may use a separate sheet of paper). If an alternative address is not provided NAAC correspondence will be sent to the primary address provided. For more information, go to www.alternativecertification.org.

Membership dues enable NAAC to provide these important services and benefits:

- The Journal of the National Association for Alternative Certification (JNAAC)
- Bi-weekly email updates
- The NAAC Resource Wiki
- Awards for outstanding educators
- Research Grants
- Webinars
- Member discounts on conference registration (currently $100 discount per registrant)

NAAC members also receive discounts on publications, products, and resources from several partner organizations!
